County Board's Role in K-12 Public Education

Thursday, April 30

This workshop is for county commissioners (and county staff members) who want to learn more about a county's responsibilities for K-12 public schools and develop strategies for working more effectively with the county's local school board(s). Through a combination of lecture, discussion, and interactive exercises, participants will explore the contours of a county's funding and oversight responsibilities for schools and learn of tools that have been used by counties to foster a good (or at least better) working relationship with their local school board(s).
