

The Transylvania County Board of Education shall conduct all business at a legally constituted meeting of the Board. The Board shall hold different types of meetings in order to serve the needs of the Transylvania County Schools. These types are:

Regular Meetings—The monthly meetings during which official action is taken.

Special Meetings—Official action meetings called between regular meetings.

Emergency Meetings—Meetings called due to generally unexpected circumstances that necessitate immediate Board consideration.

Adjourned or Recessed Meetings—Meetings which are reconvened following recess or adjournment to a set time. The purpose of such meetings is to continue with the business of the adjourned or recessed meetings.

Closed Sessions—Meetings (or sections of meetings) which may be held in private for consideration of only those matters noted in G.S. 143-318.11.
