

~~The minimum instructional day for all students shall be five and one half hours. The beginning and dismissal times are closely tied to bus schedules but shall generally be 8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.~~

~~Any exception to the school day requirement shall be made through the Individualized Education Plan or the Accommodation Plan for an identified disabled student. Any other exception shall be approved by the principal.~~

~~The transportation schedule is such that many students arrive at school prior to 8:15 a.m. and remain after 3:00 p.m. Principals and teachers are to provide supervision for these students. Principals are to use administrative discretion in scheduling homeroom or other activities before 8:15 a.m. or after 3:00 p.m.~~

~~Schedule changes for operation of schools during bad weather:~~

~~Two Hour Delay – Buses will begin runs at least two hours late. Drivers shall not start their routes until notified by their immediate bus supervisor and/or county bus supervisor. All schools will start at 10:00 a.m. (with the exception of the alternative school) on a two-hour delay.~~

~~Radio and TV announcements will include details concerning school schedules on bad weather days.~~
