

~~Student privacy interests shall be respected. Therefore, to preserve expectations of privacy in the student's personal and home life, the student shall not be required to participate in the intentional solicitation, as a part of the instructional program, matters relating to his/her personal life, those of his/her family, or his/her status within the family.~~

~~Surveys, information forms, and questionnaires must be approved by the Assistant Superintendent and two representatives of the Board of Education prior to use in an instructional setting.~~

~~APPROVED BY BOARD
AND EFFECTIVE 5/23/94~~

RESCIND