

~~It is the intention of the Board of Education that school facilities, owned by the citizens of Transylvania County and operated primarily for the purpose of educating students, be used as fully as possible in conformity with non-discrimination policies of the Board for community-educational, cultural, civic, recreational and social purposes by citizens of all ages. It is to be understood by community groups that any additional activities conducted by a facilities user, as a part of one of the limited purposes noted above, must be legal activities.~~

~~Administration and implementation of policies, rules, and regulations concerning the use of school facilities shall be the responsibility of the principal.~~
